Take Me Seriously

1. Who told the story?
   A. a performer in a talent show
   B. a judge at a talent show
   C. a parent of a rapper
   D. a person in an audience

2. Who waited in line with Mia?
   A. her friend
   B. her mother
   C. a judge
   D. a rap star

3. Why did Mia think she would surprise everyone?
   A. She was eight years old and was better at rapping than most people expected.
   B. She had the best stage name of anybody in the talent show competition.
   C. She had a big group with her that was ready to jump onstage in the middle of her song.
   D. She saw that the judges were friends of her mother, but they had not seen her yet.

4. If a person is nervous, that person is _________.
   A. sad
   B. brave
   C. worried
   D. skillful

5. What was the author’s purpose for writing the story?
   A. to entertain you with a story about a kid rapper
   B. to persuade you that talent show judges are unfair
   C. to teach you ways to be unafraid in front of a crowd
   D. to inform you about young rappers
1. Who told the story?
   A  a performer in a talent show  (Story Elements)

2. Who waited in line with Mia?
   B  her mother  (Recall)

3. Why did Mia think she would surprise everyone?
   A  She was eight years old and was better at rapping than most people expected.  (Make Inferences/Draw Conclusions)

4. If a person is nervous, that person is _________.
   C  worried  (Vocabulary)

5. What was the author’s purpose for writing the story?
   A  to entertain you with a story about a kid rapper  (Author’s Purpose)